*...Discover the Greek Wine
a fascinating journey down the passage of time.*

Greece has one of the longest winemaking and wine drinking histories in the world, as wine has always been a known, integral part of Greek culture.

Greece is one of the oldest wine-producing regions in the world and among the first wine-producing territories in Europe. The earliest evidence of Greek wine has been dated to 6,500 years ago.

From prehistoric times to the present, wine in everyday life, as a complement to nutrition, as a part of religion, or as pure pleasure!

The wines of Greece carry within the history of Greek wine and are the ideal vehicle to a journey through time.

*If you take Greece apart,
In the end you will be left with an olive tree, a vineyard and a boat..
which means that with these items
you can rebuild Greece!*

"Yia mas!"

"Evi evan!" was the toast at the celebrations of the cult of Dionysus.

"Let us be merry but never drunk" Socrates used to say.

"Wine gladdens the heart of man" acknowledged Christianity.

To all that, the Greeks of today come to add their own toast and literally mean every word of it:

"Yia mas!" ("Here is to health!").
